WSU Launches the Defense Employment Transition Program at the Oakland Center

The Defense Employment Transition Program (DETP) is a FREE comprehensive re-employment program specifically focused on the defense sector. This unique program offers foundational skills for the professional in transition and is highly customized to meet each individual's needs.

Participants have the opportunity to pick and choose which parts of the 10-week program are relevant for their needs. The components of the DETP include:

- ✓ Individual Personality, Professional Interests and Workplace Skills Assessments
 - ✓ Personal Strategic Employment Plan
 - ✓ Professional One-on-One Coaching
 - ✓ Education Workshops and Hands-On Clinics
 - ✓ Mock Interviewing

Where is the program? All sessions will be delivered at Wayne State University's Oakland Center located at 33737 West 12 Mile Road, Farmington Hills, MI 48331.

Do I qualify? This is a free program open to Michigan residents that are unemployed or underemployed - you do not need to be a recipient of unemployment benefits to qualify for this program.

How is the program funded? The DETP was developed by Wayne State University and is funded in partnership with Macomb Community College and the Department of Labor.

How do I get started? The program begins with a half-day orientation session that describes each of the above components in more detail and provides an opportunity for participants to ask questions. For more information, call 313-577-4449 or visit www.macomb.edu/defensetraining to register for an orientation.

Sessions Begin in July and Space is Limited!
